

The 2022 Poultry Show has been canceled.

Out of an abundance of caution, the Woodstock Fair has chosen to follow the advice of the veterinary community. While this saddens us, we hope this will help to play some small part in stopping the spread of Avian Flu.

To our poultry exhibitors, we wish your flock of chickens, waddling of ducks, gaggle of geese and rafter of turkeys the best of health in the coming year so that we will see you at the 2023 Woodstock Fair!
